NO. CR24-232 LK

UNITED STATES' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO SEAL

NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
February 26, 2025

The United States hereby requests that the Supplemental Memorandum in Support of Continued Detention, which will be filed under seal following this motion, be allowed to remain under seal. Federal courts are empowered to seal documents in appropriate circumstances. Cf. Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e)(4) (sealing of indictments); Local Rule 49.1 (prohibiting certain types of information from being filed publicly). It is well-settled that federal courts have inherent authority to control papers filed with the court, United States v. Shryock, 342 F.3d 948, 983 (9th Cir. 2003), including the power to seal sensitive information related to victims and other third parties. Here, sealing is appropriate because the supplemental memorandum includes identifying and other sensitive information

//

1 about victims and discusses confidential information related to the government's
2 investigation.

3 Defense counsel does not object this motion.
